> The will of Charles H. Wilson elderly retired laundryman, which left his $75,000 estate to his bride, Mrs. Martha Snyder Wilson, was Judge Pearcy's court vesterday.

In June, 1925, Wilson, then achelor, made a will leaving $13, 000 to Mrs. Martha Snyder, then a widow, and the residue of his estate to three cousins, the Masoni Home of Missouri and the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children. On the following Sept. 30, Wilson made a second will, leaving all his property to Mrs. Snyder. Oct. 2 he married her. Nov. 11 he died.

Wilson was bedfast from a paralytic stroke when he made his second will and when he married. His second will was contested by the beneficiaries under the first will who alleged Wilson was mentally incompetent, was unduly influenced by Mrs. Snyder, and was physically unable to sign a will.

Mrs. Wilson testified she became acquainted with Wilson in 1905 when she took a position as nurse to Wilson's invalid mother. Wilson later became a boarder at her rooming house, 4625 Mary-land avenue. After her husband died in 1917, she and Wilson lived together under a common-law agreement, she testified, and it was he who proposed the marriage on

PROF. CLIFFORD FARR, PLANT EXPERT, DIES

Washington University Scientist Developed Pneumonia Tuesday Evening.

Prof. Clifford Farr of Washingon University, who attained his nost recent distinction by studies of the nature of plant growth, died at Barnes Hospital today of nneumonta. He became ill Tuesday evening.

Dr. Farr was 39 years old and resided at 244 Rock Hill road, Webster Groves. He was associate professor of botany in the Henry Shaw School of Botany, Washington University, and specialized in cytology, or the study of cell growth and functions.

He was born in New Hampto 1a., studied at Iowa State Univercity and Columbia University, and at 27 was appointed assist-ant professor of biology at the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College. In 1919 he became assistant microscopist of Department of Agriculture Bureau of Plant Industries. The following year he went to Iowa University as assistant professor of botany, and in 1925 he came to St. Louis.

Noted for Study of Cells. His recent study of plant growth had attracted wide attention of cientists, for it went deep into the fundamentals of cell functions, and even of internal activity of idividual cells. Superficially, his problem was a measurement of he effects of nitrates and other soil salts on plant growth, but by his method, observation of cell ac-tion in root hairs under the microcope, it approached the elements

Beyond his findings on the ex-tent to which salts stimulated or held back growth, he uncovered data on the relation of cell activity to rapidity of growth and just what happened among the cells or within a cell under the various stimulants and depressants. He was assisted in his research by Mrs. Farr, also a botanist.

This work has occupied him for two years. In addition, he was in general charge of undergraduate work in the School of Botany. He had completed seven papers on the problem, was working on the eighth, and had been requested to

Dr. Farr had contributed papers scientific journals and also, in a ess technical vein, to the Atlantic oth academic and scientific honorary fraternities-Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Xi-and of the American Association for the Advancenent of Science, the Botanical Soiety of America, the Society for Experimental Biology, and the Torrey Botanical Club.

Funeral services are to be held at p. m. tomorrow from a chapel at 1449 Olive street.

Dr. Farr is survived by his widow, Mrs. Wanda Farr; a son, Robert, 5; a brother, Clarence E. Farr of Iowa City, Ia., and a sister, Benefit of Public Service Project to Car Service and Stockholders Questioned.

the Jefferson City Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch. JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 10 .-

purpose of J. K. Newman and asociates to impose a holding comany on the St. Louis Public Serv-Co. was filed with the Public Service Commission today by H. S. riest of St. Louis, attorney for . A. Tilles and other common tock holders of the street car contany, who assert that their inter ests will be jeopardized by a hold-ng company.

Newman has asserted that the olding company will be of benefit to the street car company and street car service through engineerng and financial advice. Priest in oday's motion asks Newman to be pecific. He wants the holding ompany, incorporated as Cities Utilities Co., to show whether it has a staff of employes capable of uch assistance, and whether any such staff is superior to that which the street car company itself has set up for its operation. Priest wants the names of th olding company's staff and a citation of their street railways exrience. He wants to know what salaries are being paid by the hold-ing company either to officers or staff. He wants a list of the stock-holders with the holding of each and a statement as to how their stock was acquired, whether for or exchange of other securiies. If paid for in securities, he vants the market price at time of payment and present market price.

Several motions now have acholding company to be permitted to acquire 35,000 shares of the referred stock and 170,000 shares the common stock, or 49 per ent of the total outstanding voting stock of the street car com oany. The Public Service Comnission is expected to rule on all of them shortly. The City of St. Louis is asserting that, having failed to take out a State license he holding company is without

NEW CANAL ACROSS NICARAGUA NEEDED, KELLOGG DECLARES

Project Becoming Necessary Due to Business Increase on Panama, He Says.

MONTREAL, Feb. 10 .- Expectation that the United States would erect a residence for her Minister and an office building for the legation staff in Ottawa was voiced by Frank B. Kellogg, United States Secretary of State, when he stopped off here on his return to Washington from Ottawa.

Kellogg said he believed a building to house the growing activities of the legation was necessary. Concerning the building of the St. Lawrence waterway he said he believed Canada was well able to look out for her own interests without advice from the United States. The business of the Panama Canal was increasing at such a rate, he said, that the necessity of building a new canal across Central America might soon become pressing. The canal, he added, should be dug across Nica-

the Associated Press. BOSTON, Feb. 10.—Sidney F. Nichols, former Coast Guard offi-cer, was acquitted today by a Federal jury before which he was tried on charges of liquor conspiracy and smuggling. The jury was unable to agree in the cases of Carl G. Halwartz, former executive of the Coast Guard, and John B. Magnus, Boston garage owner.

The Government had charged that Magnus owned schooners which operated to "Rum Row" off Cape Cod and that he had been able to keep in touch with Const Guard vessels through a stolen copy of the secret code of the guard and a private radio station by means of which he advised his fleet of the movements of the Government vessels. It was further charged that Halwartz, Nichols and other members of the Coast Guard were in conspiracy to protect the smugglers.

face of the facts submitted by Chairman Reid of the House Committee on Flood Control, after a thorough personal investigation, it is difficult to understand why the army engineers and the President insist upon a condition which the local communities cannot

Should this condition be included in the floodcontrol act the Federal Government would have to finance the assessment against the local communities with long-time loans. Such arrangement would be awkward and, in our opinion, palpably unfair. It is quite probable, too, we think, that the arrangement would be junked by a future Congress and the entire burden of the project be placed on the Federal Government, where, in all conscience, it belongs.

So obstinate is the President on this point, how ever, that some are persuaded he will veto any floodcontrol plan that does not embody the 20-per-cent local assessment. That surmise may be right. Even so, Congress, we believe, should prepare the best flood-control plan it can and put the responsibility of vetoing it squarely up to the President.

The Third Republic-And After

MEDITATIONS UPON OUR PLUTOCRATIC GOVERNMENT

was an aristocratic republic that the 1 men who overthrew the British autocracy set up in its stead (in this country). It was the third profound alteration in our polity. At one time the clergy were the dominant personalities in every con nunity from Charleston to Boston, and we had, for all practical purposes, a theocratic government.

But, like the Israelites and the frogs, we demanded a King; and George III, like Saul and the stork, proved more than had been bargained for. So down he went, and the First Republic rose under another George who did not claim to be royal, but who was lordly, all the same. A country at war has, of course, a very special form of government, nan. sly, martial law; and after 1783 there were several years when the government of the United States was nondescript. So the First Republic really dates from 1789, when the Constitution was

The First Republic set up a standard of conduct which could be, and was, approved by the English ge try. It had its crudities, but it was by long odds the most polished government the country has ever known, and its charm has lingered in memory so long that sentimentalists are prone to believe that it was the Golden Age of America.

THEN came the democratic Second Republic, to rule for 90 years. This was incomparably the noisies' regime the country has ever known. The two administrations of Jackson, in which the I cend Republic was established, were the most clamorous administrations ever heard in time of peace. In this uproar Democracy captured Washington. Thirty-five years later, to an artillery obbligato, it captured the country, when Lincoln's million bayonets swept away the last formal negation of democratic theory that still lingered in our governmental system. Fifty years after that it grasped at the empery of the world, and in the thunder of the greatest war ever fought the democratic Second Republic blew up. There was greatness in the Second Republic. There must have been, or it could rot have dreamed such mighty dreams. But it has passed, and the Third Republic reigns in its stead As the gentleman was master of the Fir: Republic, as the man of the people—apparent or real—was the master of the Second so the Plutocrat is master of the Third. As usual, it begins its reign with a mot tary tri m h of its extremists. At the beginning of the First Republic there were those who wished to call Washington "Majesty" and install him in office for life. At the beginning of the Second, there were men who thought democracy meant permission to stand with muddy boots on damask-covered chairs in the White House and to insult their betters in the streets. So at the beginning of the Third Republic there was the Ohio

It is foolish to rail at Plutocracy on account of what it does, for it is giving us, and may be expected to continue to give us. what is in many respects the best government we have ever had. If he is the least inspired, the Plutocrat is also the least dinny of all our rulers, not excluding those in the pre-republican era of theocracy and The foundation of this statecraft indeed may be described in two words -No Nonsense. Since the average man ing always suffered much more from the nonsense than from the rascality of his rulers, this is, from his standpoint, an ex-

THE catalogue of the merits of Plutocratic I government, as those merits appear to the commoner, must begin with its dislike of first-class wars. Under the Plutocracy, the average man's chance of being dragged out of his home by conscript officers and sent to stop an enemy bullet is extremely re-The Plutocrats understand too well that in a first-class war everybody loses, including the investment bankers. Therefore, such wars as it will fight will be nable wars, small wars with clearly defined and attainable objects. Plutocracy will never sally out in defense of idealismto make the world safe for any idea, to relieve oppressed nationalities, or to avenge an insult to the national dignity, provided the insulter is really a first-rate fighting power. When it goes to war, it will be to gain something definite, as, for example, the mahogany of Nicaragua, the sugar of Haiti, or to retain the rubber of the Philippines. But there are always volunteers enough to fight these small wars, and no need of conscripting the average workman. Then if great wars are unlikely under the Plutocrat, so are other scourges of populations, such as pestilence and famine. The Plutocrats are not illiterate in the social sciences, for economics happens to be the first of them and in its broadest aspects includes the others. The intelligent Plutacrat appreciates the necessity of keeping the livestock in prime condition. He does not relish the prospect of having to operate his business with starveling workmen; therefore, he favors a wage scale that will enable his operatives to be always well fed. Nor does he care to risk having his working force decimated by disease, not to mention his own risk of contagion; therefore he favors maintaining the public health services at a high level of efficiency. Education and recreation are so intimately involved in the problem of public health that they, too, are bound to be supported by any really intelligent Plutocratic government. T HEREFORE, the chances are at least even that under the Plutocratic Third Republic the average American will be better fed, better clothed, and better housed than he ever was before. What, then, is to be urged against it: Nothing, so far as I can see, except the probability that it will pave the way for a frightful catastrophe, namely, the estab

hment of the Fourth Republic, which is likely to be atavistic. Eventually the Plutocratic candidate for President will be defeated, and what then? Aye, there's the rub! With theocracy, autocracy, aristocracy, democracy and pin-tocracy all behind us, we shall pretty well have run the gamut. What then?

ADVANCE the suggestion that we may start all over again. To support it, I invite attention to certain phenomena of the last five years, roughly the period since Wison and the Second Republic blew up together. What are the great movements that have agitated the public since 1922? I mean the things that have really agitated the great mass of the people, not such play-things of the intellectuals as the World Court, disarmament, and the payment of war debts. Obviously, they are three in number, namely, prohib tion, fundamental-ism, and Ku Kluviam, Each of these has

General Material Co. of St. Louis, Places Large Order at Hug Automobile Show Exhibit

At the Automobile Show a year at the Automobile Show a year ago the Hug Company of Highland, Ill., booked one of the largest single orders on record for St. Louis Automobile Shows in the sale of fifty Hug Roadbuilder Trucks. Tuesday morning C. J. Hug, president of the Hug Company, announced to show of Company, announced to show officials that he had just closed an order for twenty additional lug Roadbuilder Trucks to be delivered to the General Material Company, who had placed the record-breaking order last year. record-breaking order last year.

Mr. A. C. Butterworth, president, and Mr. H. F. Thompson, vice president of the General Material Company, whose offices are in the Buder Building, St. Louis, confirmed this report with the statement that the order had been placed for twenty additional Hugs because of the superiority of Hug equipment in the highly specialized work being done by the General Material Company, and that the trucks would be ordered to be available for spring and summer demand upon the General Material Company's arrice.

The General Material Company was organized in St. Leuls a lit-lia over a year ago for the pur-lose of establishing delivery Dose of establishing delivery service on mixed concrete that would eliminate the necessity of installing mixing plants at the site of construction work in which concrete was being used. The company operates a large sentral mixing plant at 4101 Park arenue. Cement, sand and gravel are taken direct from the cars at this plant and thoroughly mixed in huge mixers, which in turn automatically load the Hug tracks in the General Material Company fleet with the ready-mixed concrete; they in turn deliver to the actual site of the budding operations, ready for use without further handling.

me without further handling.

Secause of the efficiency of this method of handling contrate, a brisk demand for service has kept the original fleet of the General Material Company up to a rate of performance that has caused the Material 'Company officers to place their present order for twenty additional frucks to further build up their service facilities the advance of the rush of spring and summer construction work.

The Hug Trucks that are used for this work carry special bodies on the famous Hug Road-builder chassis that has established outstanding performance records in the roadbuilding field. The trucks are noted for speed, endurance and efficiency. The bodies used are so constructed that no wet concrete can splash out on the streets of the city while in transit, even though the trucks may operate at as high a speed as traffic conditions per-mit. The trucks are also equip-ped with extra large pneumatic tires with dual tire equipment on the rear wheels, thereby protecting the pavements on which they In the delivery of ready mixed

In the first place, service of this character eliminates the blocking of streets that follows the location of material and portable mixing piants on the building site. It also naturally eliminates the annoyance and confusion involved in the operation of mixing plants at the building site. In eliminating the handling of material at the site of the building, the service given by the central mixing plant of the General Material Company effects appreciable saving to contractors, both from the standpoint of time and expense, in its elimination of the ordinary details of work involved in handled to the contractors of the ordinary details of work involved in handled. details of work involved in han-dling concrete on the job. The large mixing plant of the General large mixing plant of the General Material Company is constructed in such a way that the mechanical operation of mixing is done in a manner superior to that possible by the conventional small mixer. The quality of each batch can be accurately regulated and controlled in accordance with specifications. For winter construction work, the facilities of the General Material Company provide for the delivery of warm concrete through a method of heating the batch after it has been mixed. In thus giving concrete used in construction a chance to set before it is reduced to freezing temperature, much to freezing temperature, much can be done to expedite winter construction work. construction work.

The value of the service as a time saver and annoyance eliminator was peculiarly demonstrated by the city in paving Washington avenue. The work was done entirely at night with a quick hardening cement without the usual disturbance attending such work. A number of similar jobs have been handled for public construction work by the General Matèrial Company during the past year, as also a large the past year, as also a large volume of work for the United Railways, Union Electric Com-pany and Laclede Gas Company. The use of the service in the conrice use of the service in the construction of the new St. Louis School of Pharmacy on which building the Wm. H. Smith Company was contractor, and similar use of the service by the Wm. H. Smith Company in constructing the new V-sper-Buick Building at Vandeventer and West. Pine, strikingly illustrate some ing at Vandeventer and West Pine, strikingly illustrate some of the numerous advantages gained through the service of the General Material Company in hauling mixed concrete from its central mixing plant with its fleet of Hug Truck equipment. The time saved through this service is reported to be parfielly repronsitreported to be partially responsi-ble for the fact that the Black-mer Construction Company is tin-ishing up its large contract on the Wherre Sewer District job in less than the contract time.

From an engineering point of view, Mr. H. F. Thomson of the General Material Company, stated, the delivery of ready-mixed concrete to the job is not stated, the delivery of ready-mixed concrete to the job is not only an important factor in its elimination of work and saving of time, but is also valuable to the contractor in giving him the service of a large mixing plant in thoroughly mixing his concrete in accordance with specifications in a manner beyond the resources of the small portable plant. From the standpoint of service, everything naturally depends upon the dependability and speed of the transportation equipment that plays so important a part in the work. "Our original purchase of Hug Roadbullder Truck equipment," stated Mr. Thomson, "was influenced through the reputation established by Hug equipment in work of this character in the roadbullding field. Our additional order of Tuesday reflects our judgment after a year's experience that our original selection of transportation equipment was correct, and that no provision that we could make for the increased demands upon our business appeared as attractive to us as to further increase our investment in Hug equipment."

In addition to the line of Hug Roadbullder Trucks on display at ment in Hug equipment."

In addition to the line of Hug Roadbuilder Trucks on display at the Hug Exhibit at the Automobile Show, The Hug Company is also showing this year models in the new line of Hug Commercial Trucks, which incorporate some of the special features that have established their value in the design of the original Hug Roadbuilder Trucks.

Naturally, such an emer-gency is unlikely, but it is possible, and if it occurred the country would be faced by the alarming fact that there is no provision for choosing a President or Vice President.

Similar Resolution Offered. Soon after Norris' resolution was eferred to the House Elections Committee, a similar resolution was introduced in the House by Representative White, an obscure nember from Kansas, and also referred to the committee.

The White amendment was almost identical with Norris', except in cre important particular. It would fix a definite date-May 4for the adjournment of the short ession. Thus the condition which makes possible the filibuster would be perpetuated. The other differences were petty, and apparently calculated only to give the impression that the White measure was radically different from the Nor-Whereas Norris would have the President and Vic President inaugurated Jan. 15, following election, White would set the date for Jan. 24. In such a situation, the usual practice, in case the House was deermined to substitute the White measure for the Norris measure. would be to amend the Norris res lution by striking out its provisions and inserting those of the White resolution. Ordinary courtesy toward the Senate requires such a course, and it has been the invariable procedure for decades.

Much to the, astonishment of both houses, however, the Elec-tions Committee reported the White resolution. This action caused so much unfavorable comment, even in the House, that the mmittee then amended the Nor-and reported it also. Legislation in the House, however, is governed by the iron sway of the Rules Committee, which decides which measures will be submitted to a vote. Accordingly, few days ago, the Post-Dispatch correspondent learned that the Rules Committee had authorized Chairman Snell to bring in a rule providing for a vote on the White

ris resolution, by substituting the provisions of White's measure,

Curiosity over this unprecedented action prompted inquiry, which dis-closed the reasons behind it. Longworth, Tilson and Snell compose riumvirate which runs the House about as it pleases. They are opposed to the amendment, because the abolition of the "lame duck" session would deprive administration leaders of the power which they now possess to get votes by offering jobs to defeated members. Moreover, Norris is a Progres-

Sunday's succession of stories had held the gathering all the way through. Just then he was talking about his mother and his own conversion, but the climax on the platform was not half so obvious and impressive as the climax in the tiers of seats before it.

One moment the listeners were being pleasantly edified, and the next they were under a spell like the children of Hamelin at the first notes of the Piper. The evan-

Hundreds hit the "sawdust trail." d by a special delegation from ry Electric Co., headed by its president, E. S. Pillsbury. Altogether, 157 signed cards, raising the total to 3578 adults and children who have accepted Christianity thus far in the seven-week revival now in its fifth week.

190 Trail Hitters a Day. Sunday's converts and reconseations, in other words, have averaged about 190 a day since he began giving an invitation, at first to church people, in the second week of the revival, which began a month ago yesterday. Of the total, 1042 were children who signed acceptances of Christianity and named their Sunday schools, and 2536 were adults who signed cards with notations of the denomination of which they were "revived" members or which they desired to Adults, as announced by F. J. Ballack, chairman of secretaries, included 1600 reconsecrations, $37 new converts, and 99 who failed to designate. Seven of embers and 14 apparent converts were Lutherans, and eight members and nine apparent converts were Episcopalians.

Others included: Presbyterian, 476 reconsecrations, 197 apparent onverts; Methodists, 445 reconsecrations, 171 converts; Baptist, 352 reconsecrations, 224 converts; Christian, 89 reconsecrations, 51 converts; Congregational, 64 reconsecrations, 41 converts; Evan-gelical, 22 reconsecrations, 26 converts; other denominations, 123 reconsecrations, 70 converts.

To Preach on Immortality.

Music Master Rodeheaver anounced that "The Three Crosses," unday's sermon for 7:30 o'clock onight, is one of his choice efforts. Sunday challenged skeptics to hear his sermon on "Immortality," which is to be broadcast by KWK tomorrow night, and said he would preach to women only on the following Saturday night. He is to preach to men only-"crooks, corkscrews and bootleggers"-Sunday afternoon, when Miss Florence Kinney is to lead a boys' and girls' meeting at Third Baptist Church. Sunday said he would preach his sermon on "Americanism," which he considers one of his strongest. on the afternoon of Washington's birthday.

Niederluecke said the committee is of the opinion the provion is needless, and that it would cause dairymen unnecessary expense. The committee was to have reported on the proposal today.

SHOP BOMBED AFTER BARBER

WITHDRAWS FROM UNION o'clock last night tore a hole in a wall of a barber shop at 1208 Park avenue and shattered 90 panes of glass in a building at 1214 Park, the total damage being about $175. Granville Brower, owner of the barber shop, attributed the ex plosion to union troubles, police reported. He said he withdrew from the barbers' union two weeks ago because of lack of trade, and since then he had been "annoyed" and his shop had been picketed.

A stench bomb was thrown through a plate-glass window val-ued at $75 in a nonunion barber shop at 4877 Page boulevard at 12:30 c. m. today. The shop is operated by Harry Morris.

$500.00 in Cash Prizes

For the Best Reasons Why Your Grocer Should Sell 3 Minute Oat Flakes

It is important to us to know why the people of St. Louis and its suburbs think their grocers should sell the Genuine 3 Minute Oat Flakes. To get this valuable information, we are offering $500.00 in cash prizes for the best letters or essays on this subject "Why I think my grocer should sell 3 Minute Oat Flakes." Thousands of women in other cities have given us their reasons and to assist you we are listing below 3 good reasons. Read them over then write your answer-it may be the very one which will win the first prize in St. Louis.

3 Good Reasons

1 Because It Is Fireless Cooked—at the Mill—for 12 Hours

3 Minute Oat Flakes is not Rolled Oats or so-called Rapid or Quick Oats, but is distinctly different from any oat product that you have ever tasted, in quality, appearance and flavor. This is because the Genuine 3 Minute Oat Flakes is made under our new and exclusive process, during which it is Fireless Cooked-at the Mill-for 12 Hours, breaking down the starch cells so that the cooking is completed on your stove in exactly 3 minutes. This is why 3 Minute Oat Flakes is the only oat flakes that cooks thoroughly in exactly 3 minutes. Once you have tried 3 Minute Oat Flakes you will not be satisfied with ordinary oats, therefore look for the Big Red 3 on the package which readily distinguishes the genuine from all imitations.

2 Because It Has a New Nut-Like Flavor Found in No Other Oats

Fireless Cooked—at the Mill—for 12 Hours in big tight cookers that retain and thoroughly blend all of the proteins, minerals, volatile oils and vitamins, these plump, selected oat grains develop a new nut-like deliciousness heretofore unknown in any oat product.

3 Because Children Like It and It Is Good for Them

Children who must be coaxed to eat other cereal are fond of 3 Minute Oat Flakes because of its light, fluffy, appetizing appear ance in the dish and its different delicious flavor. As all of the food value of the whole grain is retained, it is an unequaled builder for their little bodies.

After investigation, if you find the grocers in your neighborhood are not yet selling 3 Minute Oat Flakes, send us this coupon, completely filled out, together with 3c for postage and we will mail you a trial sample and a booklet containing many reasons why your grocer should sell 3 Minute Oat Flakes.

We Could NOT be Satisfied Unless We Gave St. Louis its BEST BREAD

OUR greatest desire is to give to the people of St. Louis and the territory we serve the best loaf of bread that a fine modern bakery and baking skill can produce. We have created such a superior loaf in PETER PAN BREAD. Every housewife baking bread or cake knows that in order to have a successful loaf the room and oven temperatures must be right and the flour, salt, milk, etc., that go into the bread must be of high quality.

This bakery with its broad buying power secures the choicest flours and best quality ingredients to make into PETER PAN BREAD and it costs no more than ordinary bread. We make our own temperature, so it is always constant in dough and proofing rooms. Our ovens are the newest and best type to efficiently bake PETER PAN BREAD into the fragrant golden brown, loaves that we are proud to offer for your table and service.

1—The Fancy grade calls for materials of the highest quality and flavor, uniform in color and size and handled with special care. 3—Standard—This grade is prepared from ound material which is usually about the av-rage run of the crop, so it may be lacking in miformity, size and color.

7-Corn is simply graded .-1-Maine or Cream Corn. The kernels are cut from the cob and the cob scraped to get all of the cream. 2-Maryland or Shoepeg is a whole-grain corn: the kernels are cut as close as possible to the cob and left whole in the liquor.

S-Tomatoes are packed in three grades: Extra-Fancy or Standard, which gives arge tomatoes, chiefly whole with little tomato uice. These are packed in the medium and arge sized cans. 2—The Standard grades are packed in all sizes of caus. The tomatoes are smaller and the can is filled with strained tomato fuice made from oversripe tomatoes.

ALIFORNIA'S gem of all desserts—is now here! Fix its name firmly in your mind-Jell-WELL.

Already thousands of St. Louis families have adopted it as their favorite dessert. Once you try it Jell-well will have your preference, too.

Saves Time

This new dessert is quickly prepared—so gives you more time for other things. You merely add boiling water—then set aside to cool.

Soon Jell-well is ready to serve-a complete success. Jell-well ALWAYS jells WELL. For that alone it is famous.

Hold Jell-well to the light. Note its pure transparency. How much better it looks on your table. Even more beautiful if you make it in the mold shown above.

You'll find Jell-well healthful, too. It digests in a few minutes-so aids in the assimilation of other foods. It's especially good for children, specialists agree.

But for luscious western fruit flavors you will prefer Jell-well most. Loganberries, Strawberries, and Raspberries of Oregon and Washington. Oranges of California, etc.

You'll Like It

'After you try Jell-well-any flavor-you'll say: "That's the best dessert I ever tasted."

Then, we feel sure, you'll be glad to tell others about it.

Made of This Pro-

Rice desserts are becoming more and more popular now that we have found out that there are othrice puddings. The following recipes will be found to make tasty rice desserts.

Rice Dumplings,
Take one pint of cooked rice
nixed with one beaten egg and two tablespoons flour to make it squares of cheese cloth. Place a oon of cooked rice on each cloth and top it with a canned peach half. Cover with a spoon of rice. Gather up the cloth and press the rice into smooth, round balls; tie closely, as the rice will not swell any more. Drop the dumplings into salted boiling water and cook 20 minutes. Remove from water, and when cool take carefully from the cloths, place on a platter and coat each ball with a heavy boiled icing such as is used for cake, tinting with red fruit juice; when icing is hard remove the individual dishes and serve with whipped cream or any soft pudding sauce.

It has been estimated that there are probably one hundred different ways of cooking potatoes. Why limit yourself to three? Plain boiled potatoes, for instance, can be cut in dice and just before serving seasoned with lemon juice, mincd persley and melted butter. They are still boiled potatoes, but they have an entirely different appearance and flavor.

Or again, they may be put through a potato ricer and served in a fluffy mass that is much more appetizing in appearance than the plain boiled potatoes. Mashed potatoes may be varied by occasionally seasoning them with a teaspoon of minced onion or adding to them a few chopped chives or pimento cut in very small pieces and a little finely chopped parsley.

Baked potatoes are good when they are properly baked, but we tire of them occasionally and like a few variations in the matter of dry. Fold rice into whipped gela-tin. By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Feb. 10.—A "five-minute count" wasn't long enough for Bud Taylor, world's bantamweight champion, last night and he lost his fight with Joey Sangor, Milwaukee featherweight, in the seventh round. It was called a technical knockout, the first, so far as the records show, ever marked against Taylor's long ring record. The title was not involved.

A low left hook sent Taylor down. Referee Phil Collins—the same official who was in the ring when Sammy Mandell took the lightweight title from Rocky Kan-ms here—said the blow was "on the border line." Taylor's seconds claimed a foul.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—Erratic fluctuations in today's stock market reflected the mixed character of the day's news developments. Final quotations were generally lower, with some of the declines in active issues running as large as 5 points, but there was also a large. Trading showed a marked falling off in volume, compared with recent sessions, the day's sales falling below two and a quarter

The announcement of an increase of 303,703 tons in the January unfilled orders of steel corporation, bringing the total above 4,000.000 tons for the first time since March, 1926, was about in line with Wall street's expectations. A few traders who bought stocks on the theory that the gain might run as high as 400,000 tons dumped their holdings, with the result that Steel common sank to 144% and then snapped back to 146, off % net on the day. General Motors dividend action was also fairly well discounted, and the stock closed practically un-changed, at 138. After the cose of the market, directors; of Yellow Truck & Coach passed the preferred dividend, but the General Motors Corporation, which has a large interest in Yellow Trucks, of-fered to purchase Yellow Truck preferred at $93 cash a share, as against a closing price of $92.25 today, up to May 10, 1928.

An early speculative uneasiness over the establishment of a new high record in the volume of brokers' loans appeared to be the chief selling influence, although week-end profit-taking also was a factor. Trading showed a marked

Rubber and Oils were under heavy selling pressure as a result of unfavorable trade news. Hous-ton, General Asphalt, commonton, General Asphalt, common and preferred, U. S. Rubber first preferred and Goodrich all sold down 3 to nearly 5 points. Dupont and American Railway Express broke 5 points each. Coal and Coal-carrying Railroad shares also showed a tendency to weak-however, in a few stocks. American Smelting was run up more than 3 points to 180 1/4 and Vick Chemical climbed nearly 4 points to a new top at 68.

Chemical climbed nearly 4 points to a new top at 68.

Speculative confidence on the long side-was restored in some degree when several shares which had been sold freely reversed their trend. Montgomery Ward, Vanadium Steel and International Nickel were prominent in the late rally, while Forto Rico Tobacco issues, Pittsburg Coal, Philadelphia & Reading Coal and Iron and Union Pacific were bought at rising prices. Total sales approximated 2,100,000 shares.

Selling pressure early undoubtedly developed as a result of the unexpected increase of nearly $20,-000,000 in brokers' loans, bringing the total to a new high record. This gain was attributed largely to the tremendous volume of new financing in the last fortnight, bond issues alone running close to $400,-000 in that period. Some disappointment also may have been occasioned by the declaration of only the regular dividend on General Motors common, although such action was in line with general expectations in banking quarters.

Early recessions in the coppers seemingly attracted new buying which pushed Kennecott across $7$ to a new record and benefitted American Smelting and American Zinc preferred to the extent of 3 to the content of a to the preferred to the extent of $1000.

American Smelting and American Zinc preferred to the extent of 3 points or more. Absorption also appeared for some food, farm implement, tobacco, electrical and drug issues. Despite the impressive showing which many of these shares made and a reduction in the renewal rate for call loans to 414 per cent, the market was studded with distinctly weak spots studded with distinctly weak spots among the Rubber, Oil, Railroad equipment and railroad groups.

Ey the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—Bond prices showed a firmer trend today, but the volue of transactions was of smaller proportions.

WHAT MAN IS MADE OF. HERE is some bad news from the chemical laboratories that will knock you from right un-der your high hat. Chemists have astonished the world by announcing that man is made of glue. The weaker sex, presumably is com-posed of mucilage. This will be a ruprise to persons who always blamed the hu-midity for that sticky feeling. It is also quite a shock to the world in general. Most folks thought they were composed of the stuff clay pipes are made of. But they are only the stuff that busted clay pipes are stuck together again with. The finding that man is made of glue is disconcerting to hany persons. For 20 years the fundamentalists have been deaying they came from monkeys. Now they've got to prove they aren't descended

You can always depend on science to spill our preconceived no-tions. But there is no need of weeping gycerine tears over the fact that man is glue.

Sherman, president of the general federation and chairman of the radio committee. says it is planned to place local radio stations at the service of clubwomen for a reasonable time at no expense to the clubs. When these arrangements are completed the committee will draft a suggested general policy concerning the use of the stations for extending club interests and activities.

"A new assessment of the place of radio in our community and national life is essential to the success of the nation-wide policy which I hope to recommend at the San 'Antonio convention," Mrs. Sherman declared.

"Radio should not be thought of n terms of a novelty nor in terms of the nonsense that sometimes of the nonsense that sometimes comes hurtling through the air, but in terms of its possibilities as a unifier of our community life and as a clarifler of state and national problems which can be discussed with us personally, no matter where we live, by the nation's master minds.

"It became plain early in the study of the radio project that for the general federation to attempt to set up a series of typical radio programs was as ineffective and unsatisfactory as teaching dietetics through a series of menus. The measures which commended themselves as feasible concern our attitude toward the possibilities of titude toward the possibilities of radio for the development of comradio for the development of com-munity life.

"While it is not possible for the committee to say what sort of pro-gram is best fitted to please the radio audience in San Francisco or in New York, it is possible to say without fear of successful chal-lenge that there is no community, large or small, which does not have some special subjects of interest some special subjects of interest that can be discussed with profit that can be discussed with profit over the local radio for five to 15 minutes by the club leaders in such communities"

FOLEY PLACE DYNAMITED IN GAMBLING TRADE WAR

Shock of Explosion, Set Off

GAMES IN FULL SWING AT THE TIME

Windows in Resort and Adjoining Buildings Shattered—House Damaged by Fire Last December.

Business rivalry between St. Louis county and East side gambling establishments was advanced by gamblers as the only plausible explanation of the bombing early this morning of a building at 6128 Easton avenue, Wellston. occupied in part by Tony Foley's gambling quarters.

It is a well-known fact that gambling quarters.

It is a well-known fact that gamblers will not patronize a place where they are likely to be annoyed by officers of the law. by bombs or by anything else. Foley's place has never been raided by county officers, despite repeated complaints to the newspapers, to the Sheriff and to the Prosecuting Attorney.

Attorney.

But a fire was started at midnight, Dec. 9, in rubbish behind the Easton avenue building, spreading to adjoining structures and causing damage estimated at $20-000. Midnight also was the time selected for last night's bombing, which came as a shock to scores of men who were playing dice, roulette and cards upstairs.

roulette and cards upstairs.

Losers Permitted to Remain, Usually the take-a-chance feilows are permitted to linger until the last man has spent his last dime and borrowed carfare to go home, sometimes as late as dawn.
A few minutes after the bombing, however, lights were extinguished in the gambling rooms and the croupiers, door guards and customers, some with pienty of money left, plodded down the rickety stairs and out into the night.

The explosion was heard and felt within a five-mile radius, in Maplewood, Richmond Heights, at Hotel Chase, Dayton Street Police Station and North Broadway car sheds. The concensus of opinion of those who immediately looked at their clocks was that the explosion occurred at 12:35 o'clock. Police received more than 100 telephone inquiries from those who wanted to know what it was all while Damage Comparatively Small.

Considering the noise and curlosity it created, the damage resulting from the explosion was little—about $1000. The bomb, presumably of dynamite, had been placed outside a small corrugated from warehouse adjoining the three-story brick building at 6128 Easton. The concussion twisted the from and shattered windows throughout the building and in the nearby building of the State Bank of Wellston, 6200 Easton.

Foley's establishment occupies the third floor and part of the second floor. The remainder of the building is tenanted by the Mount Auburn Meat Market, the bakery shop of A. W. Waljets and by offices of clairvoyants. The building is owned by T. J. McLaughlin, who conducts the Mount Auburn Marstate

A watchman in the meat market and a baker in the bakery heard the explosion, but saw no one at the scene. However, a St. Louis policeman standing over the city line, a half block away, reported he saw three men get into an automobile and speed away after emerging from a gangway leading to the point where the bomb was set off. Two Deputy Sheriffs, seated in a restaurant across the street, saw nothing.

Tony Foley, proprietor of the gambling establishment, recently was in Atlanta, Ga., trying to reopen a dog racing track there in which he is interested. Foley conducts the Ramona Kennel Club, now closed, and the Los Angeles (gambling) Club, now open, both ducts the Ramona Kennel Club, now closed, and the Los Angeles (gambling) Club, now open, both in St. Louis County.

Foley recently hired a new man to take charge of a handbook at the Wellston establishment. The new employe proceeded to displace several old employes with nis friends. Police think it possible the discharged men at the instigation of rival gamblers resorted to a bomb to settle a grudge.
